

BOQUETE PHOTOGRAFIA CLUB

Meeting – Thursday, April 7th, 3 PM
At the Boquete Library, 3rd floor

It will be an interesting and fun meeting with:

- 1. Dedication to former Boquete resident and world-famous photographer, Dirck Halstead. (See <https://www.washingtonpost.com/obituaries/2022/03/28/war-photographer-dirck-halstead-dies/?fbclid=IwAR2peZg597CjWfnp5r4Y8KlM-msCyGlxjrdr91sS3mItUn9XdLkZs8CDo>)
- 2. Review and critique of the photos from “A Day in the Park” photo safari on March 17th

- 3. Get to know your fellow photographers – post a selfie (make it creative – or not)

Come join us! Make new friends and learn more about photography.

Boquete PhotoGrafia* offers educational presentations, photo challenges, critiquing, outings, & more. We generally meet twice a month, currently online. Whether in person or online, we are a supportive community. Member benefits include frequent opportunities to have your work viewed and evaluated, plus full participation in photo challenges and all other club activities, access to our growing catalog of video content, and (when possible) the chance to professionally print and display your work in group or individual exhibits, and at our table at the BCP Tuesday Market.

Whether beginner, intermediate or professional, we encourage anyone with an interest in photography to drop in.
